

RELEASE IN PART B6

From: Slaughter, Anne-Marie
</O=SBUSTATE/OU=SES/CN=RECIPIENTS/CN=SLAUGHTERA>
Sent: Thursday, July 9, 2009 9:29 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: RE: Presidential Management Fellowship

---

B6

Ps -- I'm also delighted to know that you are working on parliamentary exchange programs -- in my book A New World Order I made a big point of calling for more global legislative networks. AM

-----Original Message-----

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, July 06, 2009 11:55 PM
To: Slaughter, Anne-Marie
Subject: Re: Presidential Management Fellowship

Thanks so much for your response.

In the meantime, I hope you are finding your new position challenging and fulfilling.

Warmest regards,

[REDACTED]

Anne-Marie Slaughter wrote:

> Dear [REDACTED]
> Where will you be landing?
> Pse respond to slaughter@state.gov -- I only check my Princeton > email sporadically, and many things, like this, got buried!
> AMS

> -----Original Message-----

> From: [REDACTED]
> [mailto: [REDACTED]
> Sent: Thursday, March 12, 2009 5:49 PM
> To: slaughter@Princeton.EDU
> Subject: Presidential Management Fellowship
>

> Dean Slaughter:

>

> I hope you are well and enjoying your new position at the State > Department. We miss you here at the Woo. but are very excited for you > and proud of the example you set for us.

>

> I wanted to let you know that I have been selected as a finalist for the > Presidential Management Fellowship and will be pursuing opportunities at

> State as my top preference. [REDACTED]

B6

>

> I know you are tremendously busy and expect no special treatment, but

> (with [REDACTED] encouragement) I wanted simply to let you know that I > will be looking, in the event that you can offer any advice or > assistance. I have attached my resume should you be interested.

>

> Thanks greatly for your time, and warmest regards.

>

>

>

>

>

>

> Woodrow Wilson School

> Princeton University

>

>